

BUGLE BAND RESIGNS
OVER FLAG INCIDENT

Canadians Protest Discipline of Man Who Trampled Stars and Stripes Under Foot.

SASKATOON, Saskatchewan, Aug. 3.—Saskatoon militia are in a ferment over a flag incident during a parade of the 10th Fusiliers, and the general attitude around the barracks is that of waiting for something to drop. When the parade was passing down Second avenue, the main thoroughfare of the city, a young girl in a passing automobile waved an American flag in front of one of the members of the bugle band of the regiment. The man broke ranks, snatched the flag, broke the staff in two and trampled it under his feet. Most of the others in the regiment passed over it also.

The young man was instantly taken from the ranks at the confusion of the parade, court-martialed and discharged from the regiment. The other members of the bugle band were waiting outside the armory, and as soon as they heard the decision they went inside and told one of the officers that they were handing in their resignations that evening, and would resign permanently from the regiment if this decision was allowed to stand. They said the flag was waved right in the face of the bugler. Officers of the regiment held a consultation and the man was later reinstated.

The bugler, whose name is Hill, says the flag slapped him in the face no less than three times before he took any notice of it. He then broke ranks and threw it on the ground, he said. "I regarded the action as a deliberate insult to the uniform of the Fusiliers and would do the same thing over again if the occasion offered."

Some of the local officials said they would take the whole affair to the imperial parliament before they would drop it.

Would Have Children
Instructed in Hygiene

Washington educators, physicians, and dentists will all take part in the proceedings of the fourth international congress on school hygiene to be held in Buffalo, August 25-30, and, according to Dr. W. G. Ebersole, secretary-treasurer of the National Oral Hygiene Association, the meeting will be the most important health conference ever held in the United States.

Dr. Ebersole says this is to be the most important health conference, because those heretofore held in this country have dealt principally with adult or infant life. "When the individual has attained adult years," he says, "he has reached an age when health education has to be forced upon him. The infant like the individual is to young to receive a deep impression. It is with the school children that the most effective work can be accomplished in dealing with the health problems that confront humanity."

Measles Has Part
In Domestic Suit

Miss Rana Louise Murray has filed suit for divorce in the Supreme Court of the District, charging that her husband's conduct forced her to leave him only two weeks after their marriage. They were married at Alexandria in 1910. There are no children. A co-respondent is named.

A case of measles contributed to the matrimonial troubles of John and Pearl Whelan, according to a paper filed in the Supreme Court. Mrs. Whelan, answering her husband's petition for annulment, says she was suffering from measles when Whelan met her and induced her to marry him. He was unable to support her, she avers, and they went to his family home in Harrisburg. There they lived pleasantly until she contracted measles, which she thought ought to be treated here. She left and her husband later filed his petition.

OBITUARY NOTES.

ISRAEL J. SMITH.

Israel J. Smith, for twenty-three years a clerk in the Treasury Department, who died last Friday at his home, 618 I street northwest, will be buried tomorrow afternoon, following services at the residence at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Smith formerly lived in Brightwood Park. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nellie Smith, and by two daughters, Mrs. George Wester and Miss Edith Smith.

JONATHAN W. KERR.

Jonathan W. Kerr, known to many people in Washington, especially in the Agricultural Department, where his work as a horticultural has attracted much attention, died last week at his home in Denton, Md., of heart failure. He was seventy-nine years old and was a veteran of the civil war.

Mrs. Kerr, who was Miss Amanda C. Sisk, survives her husband, as do two daughters, Mrs. Jessie Burchard, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Sophie Kerr, of New York City. Mr. Kerr was especially proficient as a pomologist and representative of the Bureau of Plant Industry made frequent visits to his farm.

CHARLES B. McCANN.

The body of Charles B. McCann, who died yesterday morning at his home, 220 Tenth street northeast, will be sent to Walden, N. Y., his former home, for burial, after services at the residence at 3 o'clock tonight.

Mr. McCann was employed in the Bureau of Printing and Engraving here for twenty-three years, but resigned from there last year on account of his failing health. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Harriet E. McCann.

MRS. SOPHIA KOCH.

The funeral of Mrs. Sophia Koch, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. August Baumbach, last Thursday, was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Baumbach residence, 11 N street northeast. Interment was in Prospect Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Koch was eighty-eight years old, and had been a resident of Washington for more than seventy years. She is survived by two sons and three daughters, Philip and William Koch, Mrs. Baumbach, Mrs. William J. Martin and Miss Mary Koch.

COMRADES SAVED BY HEROISM OF RIDERS

Three Men Swing Horses Into Ditch Out of the Path of Twenty Guardsmen.

Officers, signal section, and scouts of the First Battery Field Artillery, N. G. D. C., continued their work today in the regular camp at Tobyhanna, Pa., following a day marked by heroic work on the part of three members of the District section. These three men, James D. Burns, Wilbur G. Andrews, and J. Albert Goldsborough, saved the lives of twenty men by their coolness when a caisson limber, drawn by six horses, ran across the field, missing the gun drillers by a hair. The riders man, aged to swing the terrified horses out of the path of the gunners, but in so doing dumped the horses and limber and themselves into a ditch. The riders came out with minor injuries. All the District men in camp had a day of rest today, with the exception of the officers, signal section, and scouts. They had to take the road for a reconnoitering trip through the Pocono mountains.

District Men Praised.

Yesterday the work consisted of hikes over the roads, maneuvers in a wheat field, and lessons in map drawing and line work for special details. The District section is receiving favorable comment from the many visitors through the camp.

For the men who did not have to work today there was divine service in the Y. M. C. T. tent, which is a branch of the Washington association. Secretary A. L. Smith was in charge, and the Fifteenth Cavalry Band gave a sacred concert.

Boxing Match Scheduled.

Last night the District men had an opportunity to go to a dance at Tobyhanna, but they found that Tobyhanna's fine maidens are few in number, and consequently many of Washington's finest dancers had to pass an evening without partners.

The District guardsmen expect to try the mettle of the Fort Myer baseball team within the next few days, and a six-round boxing match also is scheduled for the coming week.

The artillerymen are having the best sort of rest, with no less an expert than William B. Young, former steward of the Shoreham Hotel, as chief cook. Second cook is second cook, and Granville Pierson as third cook.

Transfer of Church

To Be Made Tuesday

Negotiations for the sale of the Central Presbyterian Church premises at Third and I streets northwest have practically been completed, and the announcement has been made that the building will be turned over to the purchaser, which is the Mt. Carmel Colored Baptist Church, next Tuesday.

The purchase price is $20,000, of which $15,000 is to be paid in cash and the rest before the first of next year. The sum will apply on the new church edifice to be erected at Irving street and the Avenue of the Presidents, and which is expected to be completed in four or five months at a cost of $50,000. A clause in the sale of the old building provides that the Central Presbyterian congregation shall be allowed to meet there every Sunday until next December.

The fact that President Wilson usually attends this church has increased its attendance materially, and made a larger building a necessity.

Woman Writer Here

Seeking Local Color

Mrs. Eva Shirley Lewis of New York, sister of Congressman Swager Shirley of Kentucky, is here in search of "local color" for her new novel, which will satirize official American life. Mrs. Lewis is now stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Shirley at their cottage at Chevy Chase. She is an ardent advocate of outdoor life, and may be seen early every morning walking constitutionally along the Chevy Chase roads.

To Subsidize Theater.

BERLIN, Aug. 2.—The Lokalanzeiger publishes a statement to the effect that the Berlin municipality intends to subsidize Herr Max Reinhardt's Deutsches Theater with an annual sum of 20,000 marks. Whether this annual subsidy will retain for Berlin the services of the brilliant stage manager remains to be seen.

City News Notes

Irreparable damage was wrought by the storm of Wednesday at Belmont, the old Barber estate, according to Judge C. S. Bundy, chairman of the committee which is seeking to have this estate become the property of the Government for use as a public park and playground. Judge Bundy visited the estate yesterday and discovered that several of the magnificent oaks and other trees had been ruined.

Several vessels, including two Washington tug boats, were damaged or sunk in Wednesday's storm, are undergoing repairs along the river. The tug Edith Goddard Winship, which went to the bottom near the steel plan, pier, is being raised, and the tug Minerva of the Columbia Granite and Breeding Company, has been hauled out to have her damaged woodwork repaired.

The Rev. Dr. Charles Warren Cerrati, lately consecrated in Rome as Catholic bishop of the new diocese of Matanzas, Cuba, has arrived in New York. He was accompanied by Mgr. Cerrati, who is now at the Papal legation in Rome. Bishop Warren's connection with the bureau of Catholic Indian missions of this city and for a time was pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church here.

Senator James K. Vardaman of Mississippi will be chief speaker at a mass meeting conducted by the National Democratic Fair Play Association at Old Masonic Temple, Ninth and F streets northwest, at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. The speakers will advocate that the races in the Government departments be segregated and the civil service reorganized.

EXPECT SENATE TO CONFIRM PARKER

Choctaw Indian Well Qualified for Position as Register of Treasury.

The Senate is expected to confirm without opposition the nomination of Gabe E. Parker, a Choctaw Indian, now head of the Armstrong Academy at Tulsa, Okla., as Register of the Treasury. Parker is a young and well-educated red man, and is said to be well qualified for the position. He was named in the place of Adam E. Patterson, colored, whose name was withdrawn from the Senate after he had written a letter of withdrawal to the President.

The withdrawal of the name of Patterson, following protests from many Southern Senators, is taken in some quarters to indicate that there will be opposition to other prospective appointments of colored men.

Opposition is expected in case a colored man is appointed as Recorder of Deeds in the District. Senators Luke Lea, Hoke Smith, Vardaman, Overman, and others objected strenuously to the Patterson appointment and were prepared to fight his confirmation to the limit. Gossip in Senate circles is that Senator Hoke Smith "talked out in meeting" to the President and voiced his objections and those of his constituents in the frankest terms.

The first colored man to be Register of the Treasury was R. K. Bruce, who was appointed from Mississippi in the Harrison Administration. In recent years, the place has been held by a colored man.

Colored politicians assert that the action of the Administration respecting Patterson will cost the Democratic party thousands of votes.

Cat Hikes 180 Miles.

WINSTED, Conn., Aug. 2.—When Dr. H. L. Rose, a dentist, of Canaan, left there in his automobile for the Chateauc Club, at Lake Chateauc, in the Adirondacks, early in the month, he took a maitre cat which R. T. Farum, a druggist in Canaan, had given him. Just twelve days later, when Farum was looking up his store at night, the same cat, thin and starved almost to death, appeared at the door. The creature had hiked 180 miles, through fifty or more cities, towns, or hamlets.

Some Persons
"Flinch"
When Truth
Hunts Them

"If any man is able to convince me and show me that I do not think or act right, I will gladly change. For I seek the truth, by which no man was ever injured."

—Marcus Aurelius, Roman Emperor.

Some shrink and try to close their eyes and ears to the haunting fact that the little $2\frac{1}{2}$ grains of Caffeine in every average cup of coffee is the demon which relentlessly pursues and starts various ailments, such as biliousness, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, bowel trouble, heart failure and a long string of aches and ills, taking one form in one person and another in another.

The effect of repeated doses of coffee, on those who are susceptible to caffeine poisoning, is so complex that it is difficult to foretell where its hurt will be most serious; in Heart, Head, Eyes, Nerves or where.

The stroke of trouble will come somewhere if the daily doses are persisted in.

Of course if anyone prefers to treat his body in that way it is useless to suggest relief.

Let him "follow the trail" until badly wounded.

Some go so far they can't get back to health. Others quit the foolish, losing game before fixed chronic disease sets in.

There is a mighty army of sensible ones, however, who have bravely tested the truth with their own bodies to see whether or not it was the truth that coffee caused their ailments.

It's an easy test. Quit coffee absolutely for 10 days. Take Postum hot and well made and keep track of the change toward health day by day.

It's the most exquisite pleasure in the world to be perfectly well with all the delicate and beautifully adjusted machinery of the body working in harmony, not interfered with by drugs, one of the most insidious and deceptive of which is caffeine in coffee.

This Is Truth.

Meet it bravely with head up and a hearty handclasp.

Truth thus made welcome will prove your best friend.

These are facts without regard to our own opinion, or to whether or not you use Postum.

However it is well to consider that famous food-drink because it supplies a hot beverage of the deep seal-brown color of coffee, which turns to the rich golden-brown when cream is added.

It has a snappy flavor much like the old-time real Java, but there is no "sting" in it, no caffeine or other drug of any sort. It is skillfully manufactured of wheat and a trace of New Orleans molasses.

It comes in two forms. One called Regular Postum, must be boiled full 15 minutes.

The other, Instant Postum, is in powder form and a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water makes the beverage instantly. Grocers keep both kinds.
